Itinerary – Route – Marrakech Loop – 750k

Day 1 : Arrival

Arrival Marrakech. Transfer to hotel, where you will be able to settle in and relax by the pool to prepare for the ride next morning. Welcome briefing and the formalities – bike handover, license check etc.

Day 2 : Marrakech – Taroudant (250 km)

The first riding day is awesome as we head south across the Atlas mountains through the infamous Tizi n'Test pass towards Taroudant. Twisty with lots of switchbacks climbing over 2,000 metres before descending towards our destination. Quick check over the bikes and dinner.

Day 3: Taroudant – Ouarzazate (300 km)

This morning we ride the south side of the Atlas range along incredible roads towards a famous southern Moroccan town - Ouarzazate. A visit to the crazy Kasbah and maybe a look at one of the local film studios should round the day off. Our hotel is a great place to end the days adventure. Get ready for a good dinner, Moroccan style.

Day 4: Ouarzazate – Marrakech (230 km)

Before tackling the high mountain pass to the north we will visit the UNESCO heritage site of Ait Benhaddou, the scene of many a good movie – Gladiator and Babel to name a couple. Then we cross the Atlas once again, using one of Morocco's best known pass's – the Tizi n'Tichka pass. Upon our arrival to our hotel in Marrakech you will hand over the bikes before heading to the city to explore the medina with its souks and the vibrant Jamaa el Fna square with snake charmers, spices and food stalls. Pretty cool place!

Day 5: Departure Marrakech

Depending on your flight time, you can chill and relax or nip into the city for some presents. Your transfers will take you the airport as per your individual flight time. We know you'll now start planning your next Moroccan adventure!

Fly Ride Adventure in Morocco – Some info

Hi all, thanks for your reservation, here is some more information to whet your appetite and answer some of your questions.

- 1. Riding Gear: We recommend 'Adventure' style riding gear & boots either enduro style or solid supportive adventure boots. Your suit should have armour and protection. We can arrange kit hire if required.
- 2. Helmet: We recommend a full-face adventure style helmet with visor or goggles
- 3. Tank Bags: We can hire, Top box or Tank Bags – please ask
- 4. Rental Contract: We will need a scan of your passport, driver's license and medical / travel insurance before your arrival.
- 5. Driver's License: You will need to bring your valid driver's license to Morocco for checking or in case of police checks
- 6. Immigration: When entering Morocco, you will likely be asked to fill in an immigration form. Please use the following address: Hotel Adam Park, Avenue de Teme Art, Marrakech.
- 7. Currency: Morocco uses the Dirham (MAD) but US Dollars and Euros can also be accepted. We advise to use local currency. You can only get Dirhams in Morocco – bank, hotel or ATM
- 8. Credit Cards: Usually taken in high end venues e.g. Hotels
- 9. Medical / Travel Insurance: You will need medical insurance that covers repatriation. You need to specify to your broker that you're riding a motorcycle of 700cc or more. Some policies only cover up to 125cc.
- 10. Medication: Please bring any specific personal medication e.g. inhalers
- 11. Visa: Please check if you need a visa – this is your responsibility. British Nationals do not need a visa
- 12. Hotels: Although quality is generally good, accommodation and service may not be up to Western European standards – please be patient
